NATIVE NEW LIFE FELLOWSHIP THEME SONG

A NEW LIFE

There is peace within my heart today
That causes me to sing,
There is joy within my soul today
That only Christ could bring,
and I'm happy, oh, so happy
For a New Life in Him,
I'm a child of the King.

CHORUS:

*A New Life I now know,
And my heart's all aglow.
Trust in Jesus and you'll see
Just how happy life can be!*

From the snowy mountain tops
To the deep, blue sea,
Across the rolling tundra where the rivers run so free,
I will tell the wondrous story
Of Christ and Calvary,
He means everything to me.

-by Ruben Hillborn

ANCHORAGE NATIVE NEW LIFE FELLOWSHIP

In 1971, Arctic Missions Inc. missionaries Don and Lorene Stump, started small meetings in a little mobile home belonging to Senafont Shugak, Sr, an Alutiq. Other native people quickly joined the Monday night gatherings - singing and sharing God's word. When the "group" grew too large for that home they moved to Chuck Obendorf's where Walter Malleille began leading, then onto Romig Junior High School. They continue to meet today at First Covenant Church, at 12th and 'C' street at 7 PM Ruben Hillborn (The Singing Fisherman) wrote our theme song "A New Life".

In 1967, Wallace Bays, (also an Arctic Missions Inc. missionary) the principal/choir director at Victory High School, encouraged students to share their testimonies, songs and native lore in a program he began called "The Native Musicale." The first one took place to a packed house at Carpenters Hall during Anchorage's Annual 'Fur Rendezvous'.

In 1974, Anchorage Native New Life Fellowship accepted the challenge and responsibility of the Native Musicale and it has become one of ANNLF's main outreach efforts.

Today God continues to bless the ministry of Native New Life as a non-denominational fellowship of Alaskans. We welcome all to join in this service to our Lord and Savior. Colossians 3:12-17 and I John 1:7 provide vision for this outreach.
